The show features about 12 artists whose work deals with technology in some way. Museum visitors will be fascinated by augmented reality works, interactive touch screen works, the prevalence of social media in contemporary art, artwork that utilizes code, and countless ways that technology is integrated into contemporary art.

February 20, 2018 – Karla Bonoff & Jonathan Edwards

Crest Theatre

51 N. Swinton Ave., Delray Beach 33444

561-243-7922; OldSchoolSquare.org

Wednesday, 8 p.m.; tickets $77/$57; VIP table seating, $368-$460 (available through Box Office only and includes 1 drink ticket and table service)

MusicWorks presents Karla Bonoff and Jonathan Edwards. Karla Bonoff’s legacy as a writer and perseverance as a performer are spoken best in a Billboard Magazine review of Karla’s All My Life recording. “Long before Alanis and Jewel, there was a breed of singer/songwriter whose earthly anthems of soul-searching, heartache and joy touched souls in a way few can muster today.” Jonathan Edwards is four decades into a stellar career of uncompromising musical integrity, the man simply delivers, night after night – songs of passion, songs of insight, songs of humor, all rendered in that pure and powerful tenor which like fine wine, has only grown sweeter with age.
