Suggested supplies for class:

Bring at least two supports to class. Suggested supports: Canvas, Watercolor Paper and/or Crescent Illustration Board.

One 18" x 24" Canson XL Watercolor Pad or Mixed Media Pad (30 sheets) from Jerry's or Dick Blick. You can often find one of these at Michael's and use a 50% coupon to purchase.

You need to bring a water container.

Paper towels and/or rags

Rubbing alcohol

Freezer paper (available at grocery store) or whatever palette you have to mix paints

Apron

Plastic/Latex gloves

Sponges

Small plastic palette knife for mixing paints

White gesso

Paints: Bring your favorite acrylic paints both fluid and heavy bodied

The following brands are my favorites:

Golden Acrylic Paints and Mediums

Matisse Acrylic

Lukas Acrylic: Pastos or Cryl

Chroma Atelier Interactive Paints and Mediums

All of these are available at Jerry's Artarama in Deerfield Beach or online at jerrysartarama.com.

Brushes:

Your favorites

A large flat (2 or 3 inches is helpful) I like the Creative Mark Polar Flow Brushes or Silverwhite (available at Jerry's Artarama).

Mediums:

Liquid polymer gloss medium (also known as Gloss Medium and Varnish)

Golden Acrylic glazing liquid

Stamps and stencils
